2023: THE YEAR OF COMPETITION LAYOUTS

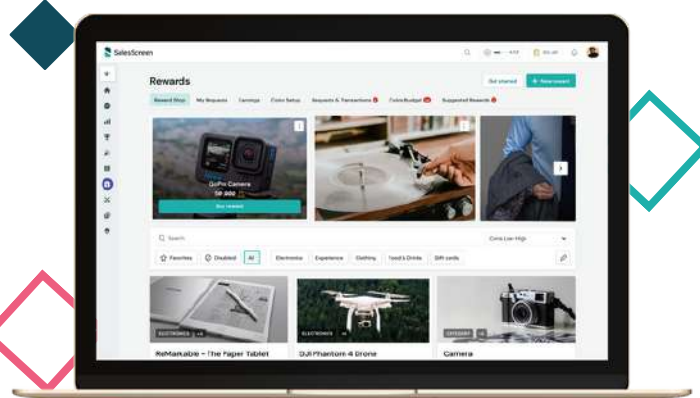

2023 is the year that we finally got some updated competition layouts! We heard your requests and know that the same layouts get a little boring but don't worry - we're going to continue to release new layouts next year, including updates on all TV slides!

Mobile App

We released our new and improved app earlier this year, and have been slowly adding features. So we are super excited to be able to end the year with all the elements you know and love included in the app.

A look ahead

WE COULDN'T HAVE DONE IT WITHOUT YOU

As we reflect on the passing year and look forward to the new one, we wanted say thank you for letting us be part of your success.

Whether it's connecting you and your team together through TV screens and hilarious celebration videos, lighting that competitive fire with competitions and battles, or making it easier to shoutout a colleague for a job well done in the feed - we love seeing how you use SalesScreen to hit your goals, whatever they may be.

We plan to continue to bring you exciting new features and enhancements that make sales life a little bit easier, and dare we dream, fun? Next year you'll see improvements for managers and admins such as improved metrics functions, battles, and added integrations. We'll also be working on updating TV slides and several of our interfaces in the platform to make things like creating celebrations easier.

From all our amazing partnership opportunities with customers across the world, to being named G2's #1 Sales Gamification Software, we are always so thrilled to connect with our customers. We're excited for everything that is upcoming in the new year and can't wait to see what we accomplish together!
